

A superb early 18th century two-sheet map of Catalonia

NOLIN, Jean Baptiste.

La Principauté de Catalogne et Le Comté de Roussillon Suivant Les Nouvelles observations par
 Le Sieur Abbé Baudrand.

Paris: Nolin, 1703. Original outline colour. Two sheets, each 605 x 440mm, with wide margins.

£3,200

A very decorative map of Catalonia and Roussillon after Abbé Michel Antoine Baudrand (1633-1700), with an inset map of Val d'Aran in the Pyrenees. The map was engraved by Claude Roussel, with a large cartouche enclosing the title, dedication and publisher's inscription, and a block of plan of the defences of twelve towns, including Barcelona, Perpignan, Palamos and Tarragona.

Stock ID :19575