

A scarce 17th century prospect of Constantinople

MONCORNET, Balthazar.
 Constantinople.

Parris: Moncornet, c.1660. 340 x 510mm.

£1,600

A superbly-detailed prospect of Constantinople from Galata, based on the same 1635 view used by Merian. It depicts both sides of the Golden Horn in great detail, with the important buildings identified by a 29-point key below.
