

17th century map of Shropshire with fine colour

BLAEU, Johannes.

Comitatus Salopiensis, Anglice Shrop Shire

Amsterdam, 1662, Latin text edition. Fine original colour with gold highlights. 385 x 500mm, with exceptionally wide margins.

£500

Decorative map of Shropshire, with two royal crests, decorative cartouches for title and scale and two arms of the local nobility. First published in 1645, during the English Civil War, this example comes from the 'Atlas Major'. The quality of the colour is exceptional.
