

A plan of London early in the reign of Queen Victoria

CREIGHTON, R.

A Plan of London and its Environs.

London, 1840. Coloured. 350 x 470mm.

£500

A detailed town plan of London, engraved on steel by J. & C. Walker for Lewis' Topographical Dictionary, published three years after Victoria became queen. The first railways into London have been built: the map marks the routes of the Greenwich, Croydon and Birmingham railways.

HOWGEGO: 330.

Stock ID :24093